You can caption the one with the train any variation of the following you wish:
"A Durango & Silverton Railroad Train passes over 100 people floating down the Animas River late Tuesday afternoon in celebration of the re-opening of the river for recreational use."
That may be longer than you want but I wanted you to have all the info to choose from.

The one with the guy in the foreground with the red white and blue top hat can be a variation of the above without mention of the train. Something like:
"Over 100 people floated down the Animas River Tuesday in a flotilla of rafts, kayaks, inner tubes and other water craft to celebrate the re-opening of the river for recreational use. Local residents cheered from bridges and river trails along the 2 mile river parade route as they floated by" Again, it may be too wordy but you can craft it as you wish.

Of course. That is why I shared them with you. If you do a credit, you can put either "Dan Bender, La Plata Sheriff Office" or just "La Plata Sheriff's Office", depending on space you have.
